JULY 2006

Letter to the Community:

Set the Children Free This Summer!

It's summer, so to me that means it's time for camp! This will be the fifth summer that I have served at Camp Courage, a church camp for 4th – 6th graders. I like to help organize it, but I also manage to cook a few meals for everyone (I like to feed people!). This year camp will be during the week of the 4th of July. The theme of the Bible lessons will be "There is Freedom in Christ" – how appropriate for the holiday! The camp's theme verse is:

"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery."
Galatians 5:1

Believe it or not, children and youth in our community need to be ministered to with this verse. So many are born with yokes of slavery in the form of poverty, physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse, neglect, broken families, and inadequate health care. Daily we read in the newspaper about adults who are in trouble or have problems, and if those adults have children, the children probably have problems, too. These children are very needy, especially for hearing the Good News about Jesus and how He loves them and will set them free.

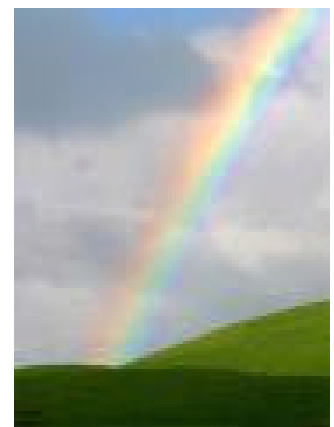

God has given many of you a heart for children. As you grow in service and leadership in your churches and the community, consider the needs of the children and youth. From infants to high school teens, these youngsters need Jesus. At your church see how you can serve in vacation Bible school, Sunday school, kid's church, camp or a youth group. Ask to serve on a Chrysalis team. Set God's children free!

Bev Earley, Community Lay Director
