OCTOBER 2006

Letter to the Community:

Can You Hear Me Now?

Is it just me, or are there more images of pain and suffering being brought into our homes recently? CNN, the Internet, Newsweek, and the newspaper keep us up-to-the-minute on human misery from all around the world and right here in town. There are the cruelties that men inflict on each other, personal tragedies, violence of war and victims of natural disasters. These images can really shock and sadden me. Whenever I am too uncomfortable to witness any more affliction, I have the luxury of quickly ending my discomfort by pressing a button or looking into the fridge.

Unlike me, God never abandons a single suffering person. He intimately shares in every moment of distress that they experience. That is a lot of sadness and pain for even a big and all-powerful God to have to feel. I wonder where the limit is, even for God.

We think we have it bad because our lives are full of hurts. But we would have it a lot worse if we were protected from these hurts. If it were not for our pain, we would never know anything was wrong in our world.

"God whispers to us in our pleasures, speaks in our conscience, but shouts in our pain: it is His megaphone to rouse a deaf world."

C.S. Lewis, The Problem of Pain

I'll be working on the upcoming fall Walk along with dozens of other team members. One of the benefits of working on team is that one gets that special time with God, just as the Pilgrims do. I plan to be listening for what God may be shouting to me during that special time. For God's sake, I want to do whatever He asks of me, because I want to help make His day a little bit better.

De Colores,

Bev Earley, Community Lay Director

Board of Directors Nominees for November's Election

The Emmaus board has been in thought and prayer and on the phone this summer looking for God's choice of board members for the class of 2007-2009. It is my pleasure to announce the nominees for the Emmaus Board of Directors:

Don Andrews
Brian Buterbaugh
Van Breeding
Janet Sutton
Mary Miles

Please keep our nominees in your prayers and then vote for them at the election that will be held at the annual meeting during the November gathering.
